

Confined Space Awareness Train the Trainer

For companies that want to train and evaluate their own workers in confined space awareness in-house.

Your trainer leaves with the materials, the method and our ongoing support.

Why train with PWST

- Train and evaluate your own people in-house, on your schedule.
- Training materials included on USB: employee training manuals, test booklets and certificate templates.
- No additional cost for employee training materials.
- Ongoing support from PWST whenever your trainer needs it.
- Taught to your company's equipment, procedures and requirements.

What your trainer learns

- Employer and worker responsibilities
- Confined space theory, documentation and planning
- Ventilation and atmospheric testing
- Pre-entry permits and entry checklists
- Atmospheric, electrical, mechanical and physical hazards
- Using and inspecting confined space equipment
- How to present the material and evaluate your employees
