Forklift Train the Trainer

For companies that want to train and evaluate their own forklift operators in-house.

Your trainer leaves with the materials, the method and our ongoing support.

Why train with PWST

- Train and evaluate your own people in-house, on your schedule.
- Training materials included on USB: employee training manuals, test booklets and certificate templates.
- No additional cost for employee training materials.
- Ongoing support from PWST whenever your trainer needs it.
- Taught to your company's equipment, procedures and requirements.

What your trainer learns

- Forklift components, design and stability
- Operating controls, data plates and decals
- Handling loads, battery power and safe fuelling
- Pre-shift inspections and handling emergencies
- Workplace safety and health legislation
- How to present the material and evaluate your operators
